E-recording services will continue and have expanded business hours, Monday to Friday, from 8AM to 4PM. To e-record you will need to work with a certified agent. Entities such as title companies, some law offices and financial institutions are certified agents. You can also mail us documents to record, however, we will have very limited access to our work site and you may experience delays in processing. Our recording mailing address is Office of the Assessor-Recorder, City Hall, Room 190, 1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, San Francisco, CA 94102.
California	San Francisco County Superior Court	Link	Yes	Yes	May 29, 2020 Update: Per Public Notice dated May 27, 2020, the court is restoring a number of services to its operations on June 1, 2020. The Public Notice provides instructions on civil motions filed before and after June 1, 2020, as well as hearings on discovery. The Complex Litigation Departments will begin scheduling telephonic conferences. For all pending motions prior to June 1, 2020, please continue to file opposition and reply briefs on the previously agreed upon schedule. If counsel needs a continuance on their briefing deadlines, they shall meet and confer to adjust any briefing schedules, and then email the court on their agreed upon deadlines. For all Joint CMC statements for CMCs set before June 1, 2020, counsel should continue to meet and confer to prepare the statement and file these statements on the day their hearing would have occurred. Based on the filed statements, the court will set further dates. The Civil Filings Office will reopen on June 8, 2020. When services are restored, the office will re-open from 8:30AM-12:30PM.
